Anniversary.

On Monday, March 4, we shall offer twenty car-loads of new and desirable Furniture, recently purchased at fifty cents on the dollar, together with a large quantity of Furniture selected from our immense stock, all of which we have determined to close out during this month. Our entire second floor will be devoted to this sale.

This is the anniversary of our famous March Sale of 1888, which taught us that a low price is the most potent factor in a closing sale. We offer a greater surprise in bargains now than then.

No person wanting Furniture now, or in the near future, can afford to ignore this sale. The sale will include a large line of Draperies and odd pairs of Curtains.

Every article marked in plain figures. Absolutely one price. No goods exchanged or sent on approval from this floor during the sale.

A visit will confirm the truth of these statements.

All Competitors Who Have an Inkling of What's Coming Are Getting

THEIR BREATH IN SHORT PANTS.

This is not the first time we've walloped the loud-mouthed charlatan humbug one-horse clothing brigand of the town. They've hit the dust on several occasions. This time we have them across our knee, and will not let up on them until we've knocked the bottom clean out of Pants. The prices of the Genuine All-Wool Pantaloons this week will make a sheep blush with shame, and transfix with awe the veteran bargain-hunter. "Once in a coon's age we hear of a customer who has wandered away from our clever thrill" after a bait thrown out by clothing sharks, but in due time he returns, penitent and shabby, a sadder but wiser man, and declares he will never, no never, be humbugged again.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL

"Is this true, oh lady fair and gay,
That you have spots upon your face,
That you delight to hide away
From every one the sun has kissed?"

"Oh no!" answered Miss, while rushing quite red,
"It's a friend." What an awfully wicked deception
She'd about to confess the photo to see.
Before using Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

But it was! All those freckles of yours, accompanied by sallow complexion, sunkenbrown eyes, pimply skin and haggard looks, HAD soon suffered. A friend, who was a friend indeed, told her of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and since taking it not a few of her friends have failed to recognize in the blooming, rosy, seven-lipped girl, the once sallow-cheeked, hollow-eyed Miss.

WARRANTED. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for "Female Weakness" not sickness alone, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of satisfaction, or money refunded. The certificate of guarantee, printed on every bottle-wrapper, has been faithfully carried out for many years.
